SESSION TWO: Putting on The Mind of Christ

JORDAN
LANGDON

SMALL GROUP GUIDE

GATHERING PRAYER

Invite Jesus to be the Lord of our hearts, lives, actions, and minds. Allow a few moments of surrender, giving the Lord permission to reconfigure our thoughts as He desires.

SUMMARY

So much of the battle of understanding who we are in Christ takes place in our minds. This week is a practical guide on how to battle the thoughts that attack our belief that we are good. This practice requires and allows us to “set our minds on things above” Colossians 3:2. We probably know what it means to act or speak like a Christian woman, but what does it mean to think like one?

SMALL GROUP GOAL

✿ To share ideas and determine a personal plan for utilizing these practical tools for a healthy mindset rooted in Jesus.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Open in prayer, inviting the Holy Spirit into your discussion.

- What stood out to you in today’s talk?
- When can you recognize that you are most vulnerable and therefore tend to give into those negative thoughts that are not from God?
- Who are your three top people you can count on when you find yourself in a cycle of negative thinking?

Close in prayer, asking for any special intentions.

SUPPLEMENTAL QUESTIONS

- Name one practical thing you will implement today to help you forge a path forward toward restructuring your thoughts.
- What is blocking you from desiring a healthy mindset rooted in thinking about yourself as the Lord thinks about you? In other words, do you struggle with seeing yourself as worthy of this type of thinking?
